AACE International Southwestern Ohio Section and American Society of Professional Estimators Chapter 38 – A JOINT MEETING

March 2017 Meeting Announcement

Topic: “Professional Certifications in the Construction Estimating, Construction Management, and Project Control Industries”

Speakers: an interactive discussion, led by Daniel Frondorf, CPE, CDT and Mike Downing, CPE, members of both AACE and ASPE

Dan and Mike will moderate a group discussion about obtaining and maintaining professional certifications in ASPE and AACE, and other associations as well. Among the evening’s talking points:

- Options for Certifications in Various Associations
- Process of Becoming Certified
- Recertification Requirements
- Professionally, is it worth the effort and expense?
- Alternatives to Certification – how else can I stand out in my field?
